The Largest & most important Mining Expo in Mongolia

6–8 April 2016 | BUYANT-UKHAA SPORTS PALACE • ULAANBAATAR

Mongolia is one of the world's resource-rich countries

Coal, copper, and gold are the principal reserves mined in Mongolia. Several gold mines are located about 110 kilometres north of Ulaanbaatar, such as Boroo Gold Mine and Gatsuurt Gold Mine. Khotgor Coal Mine is an open-pit coal mining site about 120 kilometres west of Ulaangom. South of Mongolia is home to large scale mining projects such as the Tavan Tolgoi coal mine and the Oyu Tolgoi copper mine. Oyu Tolgoi is one of the world's largest new copper-gold mines and is located in the South Gobi region of Mongolia, approximately 550 km south of the capital, Ulaanbaatar, and 80 km north of the Mongolia-China border.

The Latest Mongolia Mining news that Turquoise Hill Resources, Rio Tinto and the Government of Mongolia continue to work together with the aim of resolving the remaining shareholder matters and finalizing project finance to further develop the underground mine at Oyu Tolgoi.

"This was the first time I attended Mongolia Mining expo. I was pleasantly surprised at the extensive range of equipment and suppliers at the event and have since recommended to several colleagues that they should make it a 'must go to' event next year. Great job well done to all involved, thanks for a great exhibition"

"The quality of the attendees is good. The expo is helpful to build connections. It's a great event."

Ya. Uugansukh – United Belaz Machinery LLC

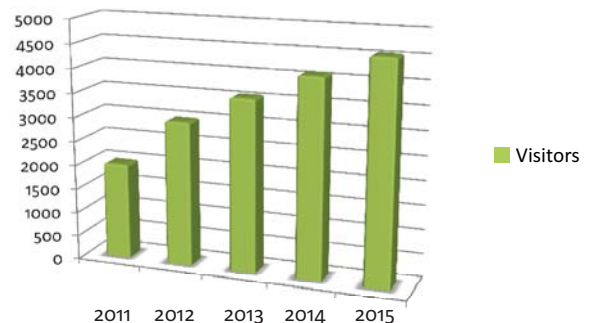

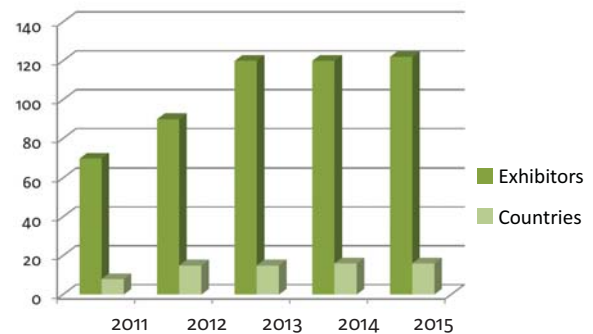

We were delighted with the quality of attendees at this event and have, as a result, realised some excellent leads and sales. We will definitely attend again.
